1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in an interview with attorney of record Steven Greenberg (Reg. No 44,725) on May 7, 2007.
3. The application has been amended as follows:

a) In the Claims:

Claim 8 has been canceled.

Claim 2 line 6, "the presence" has been replaced with – a presence --.

Claim 2 line 8, "from said applet" has been removed.

Claim 12 line 8, "the presence" has been replaced with – a presence --.

Claim 12 line 10, "from said applet" has been removed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 2,4,5,12,14 and 15 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The examiner had found that the prior art of record does not teach or suggest or render obvious "A method for managing an interposed reverse proxy.

The major differences in the independent claims 2 and 12 are not found in the prior art of record that comparing within a markup language document, a host address for the markup language document and a codebase address for a code base supporting logic disposed within the markup language document. If the host address and the codebase address differ, it can be concluded that a reverse proxy has obscured from view a server source of the markup language document. Retrieving a sever affinity identifier for the server source. In response to the conclusion attempting a tunneled connection to the server source through the reverse proxy by inserting the server affinity identifier in an address specified in the attempt in response." as in claim 2 and 12.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance or Examiner Amendment."
